Efforts to Settle Weightman Will Case Out of Court Fail.

FEUD IS BITTER ONE.

Mrs. Wister Urges Aged

Chemist Was "Unduly Influenced."

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA. Nov. 9.—All efforts to compromise the contest of the will of Chemist William Weightman by which he left a fortune estimated at between $60,000,000 and $100,000,000,000 to his daughter. In the substance of the will and contest its validity. In her answer to the petition of her sister-in-law to form the fortune which he left a fortune, estimated at between $60,000,000 and $100,000,000, to his daughter. Mrs. Annie M. Weightman and promise to Mrs. Walker has just filed her answer to the petition of her sister-in-law to form the probate of the will and contest its validity. In her answer she denies separately and generally all of Mrs. Wister's charges. In the course of her denial of undue influence extend upon her fauther, Mrs. Walker says: tween $60,000,000 and $100,000,000, to his says: daughter, Mrs. Annie M. Weightman Walker, making her, it is said, the "I deny that the decedant at any richest woman in the world, have failed time urged Mrs. Subine d.I. Weightman and the family skeleton will be dragged into court.

The contest will be carried, it is besided by counsel, to the United States

Supreme Court. A decade will have passed before the litigation is ended and the sensational charges and counter.

Mrs. Jones Wister, daughter-in-law bitter end in an effort to get a share of the great estate for her children. It was declared at first that Mrs. Wister's daughters, shrinking from the sensational scandal, had persuaded their mother to drop the contest, though in doing so they were giving up a claim for $10,000,000 The small army of lawyers engaged in the case did their utmost to bring the warring relatives together and effect a compromise. The bitter hatred that had involved them in a family war for years, however, could not be Mrs. Wister pressed her sister-in-law exerted undue influence upon a doddering old man, compelling him to make a will in her favor when he was nearly ninety years old and ex- from death this afternoon, when caught piring of senile decay.

Old Man Loved Her.

Wister makes the sensational effection that long before his death car unother struck him. He caught a her father-in-law was deeply in love guard rail, to which he clung until his with her and urged her to become his wife. At that time he was living in the Wister home and was in constant attendance upon his daughter-in-law. She has called upon a number of witnesses to testify that the bld man was badly cut and bruised.

not only singularly ardent in his woo ing of his son's widow, but was insane ly jealous of her. It will also be shown that the multi-millionaire was very monstrative in his love-making.

When Mr. Wister began paying attention to the then handsome young Mrs. Weighbaman her facmerin-law occame instance with jealousy, she declares, and when she finally married me gave up his residence at her home and went to live with Mrs. Waiker. Then, Mrs. Wister urges, the undue influence was brought to bear watch resulted in a will cutting off all his grandchildren without a dollar and leaving his entire fortune to Mrs. Waiker. Hundreds of witnesses will be called into the case to testify to these charges and to show the chemist's unfitness to execute the simple little will in which he made his daughter the richest woman in the world. The will was made on Aug. 1, 1855, and was duly filed for probate as the last will of the rich old man.

On the other hand, i spite of her father's vast wealth, Mra Walker was never able to break into rite charmed circle of Philadelphia's exclusive society. Mrs. Wister kept her out. This social feud rent the Weightman family for years. The aged chemist, before he finally went to live with Mrs. Walker, loved his daughter-in-law for her rare beauty, her social position and her devotion to his son. This feeling seemed to suffer a complete revulsion after her marriage to Mr. Wister. SUFFERED MISERY FROM KIDNEYS Mrs. Win. Eckerson. 840 Liberty street. Schenectady, N. I IS MORE THAN A BAD COLD-IS A DEEP-SEATED BLOOD DISORDER

Catarrh is not merely a stubborn or protracted cold, as some people seem to think, but it is a deep-seated and dangerous blood disorder, more generally affecting the body than any other disease. Hardly any part is exempt from the trouble; it attacks the head, throat, stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, lungs and other members, and its effects often completely break down and undermine the health.

Like all blood diseases, Catarrh comes from poisons and impurities accumulating in the blood. The refuse matter of the body, which should be expelled as nature intends, is left in the system because of a sluggish condition of the different parts. Then the blood, as it circulates through the body, collects and absorbs the foul matter, becoming polluted and unfit for properly nourishing the system. When the blood is in this unhealthy condition the contracting of a cold starts the secretions by irritating all the delicate linings and inner tissues of the body. Thus the mistaken idea that Catarrh is a severe cold or a disease of the mucous membranes which can be cured with sprays, washes, lotions, etc., is formed. Catarrh is always worse in Winter because of the cold, damp, changing weather, which makes every one more susceptible to cold; but it is in no sense a disease that is dependent on climatic conditions for its real cause.

It has more disgusting and unpleasant symptoms than any other disease, besides being a very serious disorder. There is a constant ringing and buzzing noise in the ears, a thin watery discharge from the nostrils, headaches are frequent, filthy, stringy matter drops back in the throat requiring constant hawking and

I had Catarrh for about fifteen years, and no man could have been worse. I tried everything I could hear of, but no good resulted. I then began S. S. S., and could see a little improvement from the first bottle, and after taking it a short while was cured. This was six years ago, and I am as well today as any man.

I think Catarrh is a blood disease, and know there is nothing on earth better for the blood than S. S. S. Nobody thinks more of S. S. S. than I do. Lapeer, Mich.

spitting, and often much effort to dislodge it, the breath has an offensive odor, slight fever comes and goes, and gradually the entire health becomes affected. So thoroughly does the blood become filled with the catarrhal matter that the kidneys and bladder are diseased, chronic dyspepsia or Catarrh of the stomach develops, appetite and digestion are weakened and the disease often settles in some vital part, usually the lungs because of the constant passage of poisoned blood through them, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption, the most fatal of all diseases.

To expect to cure Catarrh with sprays, washes, inhalations, tobacco remedies and such treatment is a great mistake—it is treating the effect instead of the cause. This treatment does good in as much as it gives temporary relief and comfort to the sufferer, but is in no way curative, because it does not reach the real seat of the trouble, which is in the blood, and while experimenting with such things the patient is losing valuable time and allowing the disease to make dangerous headway.

To cure Catarrh permanently the blood must be thoroughly purified and the system cleansed of all poisons and at the same time strengthened and built up. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It attacks the disease at its head, goes down to the very bottom of the trouble and makes a complete and lasting cure. S. S. S. removes every particle of the catarrhal poison from the blood, making this vital stream pure and fresh. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, the head is cleared, the hawking and spitting cease, every symptom disappears, the constitution built up and vigorous health restored. S. S. S. also tones up the stomach, aids the digestion and acts as a fine tonic to the entire system, and being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks will not injure the system in any way. Catarrh sufferers are invited to write for our book treating on this disease, and any medical advice they wish, no charge for either. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, ATLANTA, GA.
